

Aniridia Network UK

Aniridia Europe Liaison Officer role

In addition to the general responsibilities of officials the holder of this role is expected to:

- act as a point of contact between Aniridia Europe (AE) and Aniridia Network UK (ANUK), representing the interests of ANUK members and keeping them and the Trustee Board informed of AE's activities.
- liaise with colleagues from other AE members via email, teleconferences and meetings
- represent ANUK at meetings of the AE General Assembly
- be willing to be nominated for election to the Board of AE (if elected this post will normally be held for two years)
- contribute to the running of AE, encourage other ANUK volunteers to do so as well and co-ordinate their work

This role will usually involve some European travel, once possibly twice a year. Reasonable costs for this will be covered by the ANUK Expenses Policy.

Deputy Aniridia Europe Liaison Officer role

In addition to the general responsibilities of officials the holder of this role is expected to:

- actively assist and stay up to date with the work of AE and the AE Liaison Officer.
- deputise for or accompany the AE Liaison Officer as necessary, at meetings and teleconferences, except those of the AE Board.
