

Aniridia Network UK

Befriending Scheme Officer role

In addition to the general responsibilities of officials the holder of this role is expected to:

- manage the running of the befriending scheme
- be the point of contact for people affected by aniridia who wish to link up with others to get or give support
- use the ANUK database to find appropriate potential pairings according to the wishes of each party.
- work to establish communication between the parties
- follow up to check if contact was made, its effectiveness and offer further support if appropriate.
- devise policies and procedures to ensure the legal operation of the befriending scheme and the safety of participants.
